Old Business:

A huge thank-you goes to Ron Schreiner and David Schaffer (and David's wheelbarrow and new dog) for repairing the basketball hoop and trimming around the tennis court.

New Business:

Erin Kabrink from the Watershed Management Division was present to explain the "Sustainable Landscapes Cost Share Program."

The City of Lincoln is offering a rebate of up to $2000 to Lincoln property owners for approved projects. These projects are intended to improve water quality, reduce runoff and facilitate infiltration. Participants may do the work themselves or hire a professional.

A combination of these projects qualify:

1. Rain garden
2. Native landscaping
3. Rain barrel
4. Soil restoration
5. Lawn seeding
6. Pavement removal
7. Permeable pavers
